Guidance News

9-12: The Champlain College Young Writers' Conference will be held May 24th-26th. Now in its 19th year, all high school students are invited to share in three days of readings, improv, Moth storytelling, poetry slams, and literary jazz/blues fusion. Moira Smiley is this year's keynote speaker. Application deadline March 8th. Register at www.champlain.edu/write

9-12: Summer Program Opportunity – Boston University's Summer Journalism Institute. For more information regarding application and costs, visit <https://combeyond.bu.edu>

10, 11: It's time to start thinking about schooling beyond high school! The Guidance Department is hosting an information night on Monday, February 4th at 7:00 p.m. in the Francis E. Lawlor auditorium at Amesbury High School. Students and parents/guardians of the Classes of 2020 and 2021 are invited to review the process of college admissions and the difficult decisions about colleges and careers, how the guidance counselors support you during this process, and how to structure your approach.

11, 12: The Massachusetts Society of CPAs encourages high school juniors and seniors interested in learning more about accounting or business to take advantage of the FREE MSCPA high school membership! Students will be directly informed about scholarship opportunities, conferences and workshops. If students want to learn more about the accounting program at a particular college, they can be introduced to an MSCPA student member or professor who can help. For more information, visit https://www.mscaonline.org/about/join/hs_student 12: Seniors – bring in your acceptance letter(s) to put your star up on the bulletin board outside of Guidance.

College Programs, Open Houses, and Fairs are located in the Colleges section in Naviance. You can also check the Open House binder in the Guidance Center for a more limited listing.
